Salve Regina The Newport College

Newport, Rhode Island 02840

D E D I C A T I O N

It is with great pride that the Fine and Performing Arts Faculty and students dedicate "Everyman" to Sister Sheila Megley. Her initial and continuing interest and support of the Fine and Performing Arts at our College has caused it to flourish into an academic entity that is an integral part of the overall curriculum.

"If a Director is to create, he needs a solid producer behind him. If a theatre instructor is to create a department, he needs an administrator behind him. Sister Sheila is both producer and administrator for the College's Theatre program. Because of her interest and support, Sister Sheila has created theatre on campus as a labor of love."

*Bernard G. Masterson, Chairman
Theatre Department*

"It is through her commitment that we have been able to witness a real renaissance in the Arts here at Salve."

*Jay Lacouture, Chairman
Art Department*

"Sister Sheila provides an atmosphere in which people can express themselves artistically and by so doing share in humanity's great tradition of beauty."

*Brother James Loxham, Chairman
Applied Music*

"We join in this tribute to Sister Sheila. She has set the stage for a dramatic change in the Fine and Performing Arts and has spotlighted that challenge in a direct way which allows us to get on with the show."

Faculty of the Fine and Performing Arts

"Sister Sheila's encouragement has helped many students realize their potential in the Theatre Arts. It has been a major force in keeping Theatre alive on this campus, allowing so many students the wonderful privilege of being part of that life.

She knows the value of the Arts in a Liberal Arts environment and supports the creative arts faculty in its attempts to foster a thriving, creative atmosphere.

She is a source of strength, not only to the teachers, but also to the students -- the singers, the performers, those behind the scenes.

We gratefully appreciate her faith and support."

Salve Regina College

Sister Sheila Megley came to Salve Regina College in 1974. She came here from the University of Nebraska, where she was a teacher in the Department of English. Her educational background includes a Ph.D. from the University of Nebraska, an M.A. in English from the University of Chicago, an M.A. in Theology from Saint Xavier College, and a B.A. in Mathematics from Rosary College in River Forest, Illinois. In addition to her teaching at the University of Nebraska, Sister Sheila also taught at Saint Xavier College, Chicago, and Barat College, Lake Forest, before coming to Salve.

Sister Sheila has served on various commissions and professional organizations, such as the Secretariat of the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, the Newport Institute, the NEYLAN Commission; Chairperson of the Mercy Higher Education Colloquium, Association of Deans from Private Rhode Island Colleges, the Committee for the Study of Women in Higher Education, and the Governor's Equal Educational Opportunity Task Force for Rhode Island. Sister Sheila functions as Provost/Vice President. She also serves as Academic Dean and has served as Dean of Students and Professor of English. Her chief function has been that of successfully creating an atmosphere in which programs and people can grow.

We are grateful.

SALVE REGINA COLLEGE HOSTS IRISH FOLK CONCERT MARCH 5, 6; PUBLIC IS INVITED TO ATTEND

In celebration of Newport's Irish Heritage Month, an Irish Folk Concert, featuring the Newport College Singers and Madrigals, will be held at Salve Regina College March 5 and 6 at 8 p.m. in Ochre Court. The public is invited to attend.

An informal setting has been planned for the concert with the Singers and Madrigals gathering 'round the fireplace in the Great Hall to sing the traditional music of Ireland. This is in keeping with Irish tradition when a family would open its home to neighbors and friends to enjoy an evening of music around the fireplace hearth.

Songs included in the concert are "Danny Boy," "Rose of Tralee," "The Irish National Anthem," "The Gypsy Rover," "Phil the Fluter's Ball," "Leaving Armagh," and "The Foggy Dew."

Admission to the concert is free, but because seating is limited, advance tickets must be reserved. To reserve your tickets, or for more information, call the College at 847-6650, ext. 285, 286.

GRADUATE ADMISSIONS ANNOUNCEMENT

Due to the steadily increasing graduate enrollment, the College has consolidated the graduate admissions function within the Admissions Office. In making this announcement, Dr. William Burrell and Mr. Christopher Kiernan note that the enrollment of graduate students realized over the past years make the "One College, One Admissions Office" philosophy a timely and efficient one for Salve to adopt.

The unique and personal approach that graduate students have experienced in the process of admissions and in the development of their programs of study has been incorporated in the reorganization.

Katie Horan, Assistant Director of Admissions, has been given the responsibility to implement the College's plan for the continued development of graduate enrollments.

If anyone wishes to contact Miss Horan for additional information she can be reached in the Admissions Office at extension 233.
